VICTORY DAY

Russia is getting ready to celebrate one of the most important dates in its history which will have its round anniversary in 2020. It is the 75th anniversary of the Victory in the Great Patriotic War.

THE PAGES OF HISTORY

The Great Patriotic War is the greatest horror of modern history, the greatest grief for the Russian people. One event, four years, millions of killings and ruined lives...

The beginning of summer, proms at schools, plans for the future, a typical early morning foreshadowed nothing...but soon all those pictures of peaceful life of the big country were substituted by Bloodmar streets, the sounds of machine-gun fire, the explosions of ive ammunition and a child's wailing, trying desperately to find his family.

Yulia Sidorova, Muravlenko

War, war, war... I don't really know much about war. How can I? I've never seen the people burning alive inside the fire. I've never seen the rivers of blood. I've never been in the center of a battlefield. I've never been starving for about 2,4 years and I've never eaten cats, dogs and people....

I wish the anniversary of the great victory would unite all the countries, in spite of the tense situation in the world. It will remind us the cruelty of the war and the significance of the peace.

War, war, war... I don't really know much about it. And I don't want to..
